Dear Mr Muir,

It was a very lonely sticky - mid that perched on the porch under my oaks for tea tonight and wondered at the perversity of man!

We stopped at the P.O.
and I received a ten page letter from Donald full of his work in the Ujain and begging me to hold

05342 you prisoner until his return - You must make good your promise to come back to us soon - I enclose Mr. Corcoran's article in tonight's News.

Margaret Craig telephones she thinks she has some "very interesting negatives" of you - I shall eagerly await results and shall have something to show when you come back I am sure.
I made little Bessie go out with me after tea together with them the house seemed so deserted. I am grateful to you for these few days but will most graciously let it be a time of asking for more -

Ever sincerely your friend
Arthur O'Shea
